

KUNM Celebrates Two Major Milestones This Fall!

By Mary Bokuniewicz
soon-to-be-former KUNM Development Director

I've got so much to tell you, I don't know where to begin! Here are the headlines:

- On October 19, 2006, KUNM turns 40!
- It's time to help pay for your favorite public radio programs.
- I'm retiring on November 1, 2006.

It's me! Mary B.

Yup, after 17 1/2 years of bugging you for money, I'm going to stop. Well, not entirely – I'll probably do some volunteer work during pledge drives to come, and I'll start showing up more often on afternoon Freeform (alternate Fridays).

But this is my last membership campaign/fundraiser/pledge drive as KUNM Development Director. Will you help me make it the best ever? Great, thank you!

Milestones are a time for reflection, and as we celebrate KUNM's 40th birthday, I hope you'll take a moment to consider what an incredible gift we have in public radio, one of the last bastions of independent media.

In contrast to corporate monoculture, KUNM is rich and colorful and juicy and organic, and we're darn lucky to have it. It's not always easy listening, it's not always exactly what you were hoping for, but we're out there doing our best, taking chances, creating something that more accurately reflects the complexity, diversity and messiness of real life.

Through thick and thin, I've loved KUNM for more than two decades. You've loved it too, enough to give us some of your hard-earned cash. Since that's what it takes to keep KUNM on the air, I'm asking you to do it again – just respond to our fall mailing with your annual renewal or extra gift.

This is the last time I'll be in charge of the asking, but I trust that you'll continue to give, year after year, no matter who's asking. And I hope you'll be extra generous this fall, in honor of our milestones!

As I look back on my tenure at KUNM, I'm amazed at how we've grown. In 1989, my first year on staff, our entire annual operating budget was roughly $300,000, with $100,000 of that coming from listener contributions.

Today, our annual budget is nearly $1.5 million, and your gifts account for fully half of that (more than $700,000 last fiscal year)!

That's a lot of money to record, process, deposit, acknowledge and track, and I have to say that over the past year or so, we haven't quite been up to the task. If we've been a little slow in responding, please accept my regrets, and be assured that it's not for lack of gratitude, just lack of resources – a fact of life in the community-service sector.

The great news is that we've got a real power team in place to manage the back office – Sarah Beck and Rob Raucci – and they'll soon have our fundraising machinery running like new!

Rob is your new go-to guy for questions related to your giving, also for Zounds, pledge gifts, address changes, all that sort of thing. Please do not hesitate to call or email him with any question about anything. Really, we love to hear from you; and Rob can help you! Phone 277-3968, or email membership@kunm.org.

REPORT TO THE KUNM COMMUNITY

by Richard S. Towne, KUNM General Manager

October's the month KUNM turns 40 years old. Happy Birthday to You and Happy Birthday to us. I wish you the happy birthday since it's listeners who matter and make KUNM possible and if we didn't mean anything to you, we wouldn't mean anything to us so let's just celebrate a pretty amazing milestone together and raise a toast for "40 More."

How many songs have we sung and played in 40 years? How many stories have we told, or poems have we read, over four whole decades? Countless thousands, no doubt. And countless thousands of voices have appeared on our air as we strive for being the very best, and diverse, and alternative, and community based station ever.

Forty years of broadcasting (and I am sure it was wild at the beginning in 1966) is the same as 350,400 hours of radio programming, not counting leap years and such. I personally don't know what to do with that particular piece of data; it's just something I was wondering about. Given that every one of our programmers spends countless hours preparing for every hour of broadcast, we probably are looking at celebrating a million hours of human investment to make KUNM radio so very special.

Then, of course, we need to bring you, as a loyal listener, into our service equation. Last year, with around 100,000 listeners tuning in about seven hours a week, KUNM generated something like 35 million listener hours across New Mexico in just one year. KUNM has experienced considerable audience growth over the years, so calculating the true value of our work together (informing and entertaining you and our neighbors across New Mexico) will cause us to come up with some mind-boggling numbers after 40 years of service.

So Happy Birthday to Us! We'll have plenty of ways to celebrate. The best wish we can make is that you will continue to listen and support our work, and that you understand and value the importance of independent community-based media in our lives. Remember how cool it was to get cash in a birthday card from your Grandparents when you were a kid? You can do that for KUNM and we will put it right to work for you here at the radio station!

Our gift to you is a brand new master broadcast antenna at Sandia Crest. By now, you may even be listening to the new antenna. Work is underway (in early September) and will continue (weather permitting) for several weeks until the old antenna is lying on the ground and the new one is hanging from our mountain-top tower. The old antenna has served with supreme distinction for at least 18 years, but it is stressed out, obsolete, and at the end of its useful life. (You would be tired, too, if you spent 18 straight years outside and naked on top of Sandia Crest.) KUNM will recycle the metal, no doubt to be melted into plowshares.

The new antenna is a real work of art (with a $180,000 price tag – installed) that was paid for by the McCune Charitable Foundation in Santa Fe and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (thank you!, Thank You!, THANK YOU!). The new rig is also capable of digital radio broadcasting so as soon as digital radios get to the consumer marketplace, KUNM can be heard in high-definition audio (like CD audio). We are converting our transmitter to digital as well (thanks again to McCune and CPB), but remember, your analog radio will always keep working.

So happy birthday KUNM! Congratulations on being such an important part of this community and for being such a haven for folks like me who cherish the idea of community media as a tool to serve community needs. I know how I will be celebrating. I'm going to bake a cake, put 40 candles on it, stick it in front of my loudspeakers at home, tune in to Freeform and watch the candles blow out. Here's to 40 more! ■

Sarah knows pretty much everything, and what she doesn't know she can figure out. She's also our non-profit spot specialist, so call her if you want to purchase spots for your tax-exempt organization; 277-2163, or support@kunm.org.

So I guess this is my opening farewell. Can I just tell you how very grateful I am to have had the opportunity to do good work, meaningful work?

And what an honor it has been to "know" you, and I do feel like I know so many of you, through your generosity over the years. Words cannot express my gratitude.

But there's plenty of time for good-byes, or better yet, "see you later," as I'll still be around on the fringes. And I expect to see you at one (or both) of our TWO gigantic birthday/retirement parties in November – stay tuned for details!

Meanwhile, we've got one more huge chunk of money to raise before I pass the torch on November 1, so let's get to work!

Just watch for our mailing, and respond right away with a great big 40th birthday gift for KUNM! (You can also give online, at kunm.org.)

Happy 40th Birthday, KUNM! ■

Help us celebrate 40 years!

Happy 40th Birthday, KUNM!

Please be part of our celebration, by submitting your birthday greetings and/or reminiscences.

Three great ways to participate:

1. Leave your message on voicemail. Call 277-4357, or toll-free 1-866-899-5866. Tell us your name, and where you live, then pour out your heart!
2. Email your message to maryb@kunm.org. We'll print as many as we can in Zounds, and read them on air.
3. Send us a love letter! Or a poem. Or whatever you're moved to write. We'll share it with the KUNM community!

Mail it to: Mary Bokuniewicz

40 Years 1966 2006

IT'S NOT TOO LATE!

The KUNM Fall Pledge Drive is just around the corner but there's still time to grab a seat and help answer phones.

Sure, having great handwriting and being articulate on the phone are qualities we look for in our phone volunteers. But more important is a genuine to desire to have fun.

And not only do our phone volunteers have fun during our pledge drives but they also help to keep KUNM on the air.

And we're just a couple of weeks away from our Fall Pledge Drive, October 14-20 and we still need volunteers to help answer the phones and take pledges. So, sign up for yourself, or how 'bout a whole group? (We'll even plug your group's name on the air!) Most shifts are a maximum of three hours long. Shifts begin at 6 a.m with the last shift ending at 10 p.m. And what could be more fun than working a phone shift during your favorite KUNM program?!? There'll be plenty of food and snacks and of course - FUN! So call 277-4516 today to volunteer for a KUNM Fall Pledge Drive phone shift! And from all of us here at KUNM - thanks!

RADIO HIGHLIGHTS

Sunday, October 1

11 a.m. "The Jewish New Year: A Time To Heal." This special program celebrates the Jewish New Year. Hosted by Arye Gross, it features music, interviews and stories that stir, and humor that will heal the heart and soul. Program highlights include trumpeter Frank London of the Klezmatics, who takes listeners back to the words and folk wisdom of Woody Guthrie with the group's new CD, "Wonder Wheel," and Fulbright scholar Jessica Alpert travels to Central America to hear the life stories of the dwindling Salvadoran Jewish community there, struggling with the ghosts of its past, plus much more.

Arye Gross

6 p.m. Radio Theatre. "Jumping for Joy" by Bernard Farrell. One of LA Theaterworks' WorldPlay series that brings radio drama from around the English-speaking world to international audiences. The theme for this year's WorldPlay offerings is: Quantum Shifts. In this work Martin, a man in his fifties, falls in love with Joy, a young woman in her twenties, younger than his own children, to the chagrin of his friends and family. At Joy's urging, Martin agrees to undertake a parachute jump for charity, and even he begins to wonder about Joy's motives as he prepares to take this quantum leap into the uncharted waters of infatuation. A production of RTE Ireland.

9 p.m. Other Voices, Other Sounds. Independent label and unreleased music, Part 1. Tonight's show features the first installation of a cross-section of recent submissions to the OVOS hosts by independent labels and individual composers. Hosted by Steven M. Miller

Friday, October 6

8 a.m. University Showcase presents "Spreading Democracy in the 20th Century," with Mark Peceny, Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Political Science at the University of New Mexico. Mark Peceny has studied US policy of promoting democracy via US military interventions around the world and presents his findings in his comprehensive book, "Democracy at the Point of Bayonets." His studies provide an excellent opportunity for reflection on where we have been and where we are going with advancing democracy. Hosted by Jane Blume and produced by Dick Frederiksen

Saturday, October 7

6 a.m. New Dimensions, "Where is Deep Throat When We Need Him?" with Joan Felt and John O'Connor. Discover the many layers of the man who was "Deep Throat," the man who helped Washington Post reporters break the cycle of corruption in the Nixon administration. Program #3156

Sunday, October 8

11 a.m. Sage Health On Call. "Contemporary Hypnotism and Future Medicine." Beginning with the first deep relaxation/guided imagery tapes in the early 1970s, hypnotherapy has gradually assumed a strong partnering role with both conventional and alternative medicines. From pain management, to sleep challenges, to weight management, smoking cessation, memory enhancement, confidence and self-esteem building, the contemporary protocol of hypnotism has become a highly valued and frequently used approach. Our guest is Lois Prinz, CCHt, CI, clinical hypnotherapist, certified instructor for the National Guild of Hypnotherapists, and founder and director of the National Hypnotherapy Training Center here in Albuquerque.

6 p.m. Radio Theatre. "Anne Manx and the Ring of Minotaur (Episode 1)." This second adventure of Anne Manx hurls us into a web of intrigue swirling around an ancient temple, a mysterious ring, and a legend that offers someone the chance to actually become a god. Jean Richmond's murderous lunge for ultimate power forces Anne Manx to risk her own soul for revenge. Starring Claudia Christian as Anne Manx and Patricia Tallman as Richmond.

9 p.m. Other Voices, Other Sounds. Independent label and unreleased music, Part 2. The second installation of a cross-section of recent submissions to the OVOS hosts by independent labels and individual composers. Hosted by Steven M. Miller.

Thursday oct 12 NOON

Riding subway over Williamsburg Bridge one night I ask saxophonist Richard Tabnik what jazz is and he says, "Jazz is the boil on Marilyn Monroe's ass. Which is a beautiful thing, don't get me wrong." I ponder that then he says, "Jazz is breakfast for the angels. That's the only reason those visitors from outer space ever came to this planet, they weren't interested in our technology, or our domestic livestock, or humans, they wanted our jazz." Host Mark Weber.

Friday, October 13

8 a.m. Colors of Justice. Our monthly environmental justice radio program, which covers a broad range of issues. Produced and hosted by Judith Espinosa and Cynthia Gomez.

Saturday, October 14

6 a.m. New Dimensions, “Deep Medicine, Deep Healing,” with William Stewart. Bringing an integrative approach to healing to the world of conventional medicine. Program #3153.

Sunday, October 15

11 a.m. Smart City Radio. This occasional, hour-long public radio talk show takes an in-depth look at urban life, the people, places, ideas and trends shaping cities. Host Carol Coletta talks with national and international public policy experts, elected officials, economists, business leaders, artists, developers, planners and others for a penetrating discussion of urban issues.

6 p.m. Radio Theatre. “Anne Manx and the Ring of Minotaur (Conclusion).” See October 8 listing for details.

9 p.m. Other Voices, Other Sounds. High Mayhem Highlights, Part 1. Excerpts from the 6th Annual High Mayhem festival, held October 6-8 in Santa Fe. Hosted by CK Barlow.

Friday, October 20

8 a.m. Straight to the Heart: Radio Conversations, “Diamonds, Deceit and Desire.” Never has there been a more effective and deceitful campaign than the one that has long propped up the diamond market. Beyond the sparkle lies a dark and troubling world brought to light by Tom Zoellner, author of “The Heartless Stone.” In a revealing conversation, host Ron Chapman guides us in an examination of an extraordinary trade and market, surprisingly effective deceit and the mysteries of the human heart that make it all possible. Straight to the Heart is produced for KUNM by Ron Chapman, an internationally accredited speaker and national award winning radio commentator.

Tom Zoellner

Saturday, October 21

6 a.m. New Dimensions, “Women of Grace” with Darol Lee Flinders. Join us for some riveting portraits of four contemporary women whose lives have been lived with a dedication to improving the human condition similar to that of the female mystics and saints of an earlier time. Program #3161.

6 p.m. Reading and Conversation, with Robert Coover. Described by The New York Times as “one of America’s quirkiest writers,” Coover is the author of “The Public Burning,” a long and fantastic fictional account of the events surrounding the executions for espionage of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg in 1952, whose principal narrator identifies himself as the then-Vice President of the United States, Richard Milhous Nixon. Coover’s other publications include “Spanking the Maid,” “Gerald’s Party,” “Pinocchio in Venice,” and “Briar Rose.” He’ll read from his work, and then join in conversation with interviewer Michael Silverblatt.

Robert Coover

Sunday, October 22

11 a.m. Simon Ortiz. Acoma poet and writer Simon Ortiz returned to New Mexico this summer for a reading at the University of New Mexico. Using the simplest of language, Ortiz evokes the most complex feelings, and often a longing for the experiences about which he writes.

M. Scott Momaday

6 p.m. Radio Theatre. “The Indolent Boys” by N. Scott Momaday, adapted for radio by Lori Tubert. This radio play is based on historical events and Kiowa oral tradition. Set in Anadarko, Oklahoma Territory in 1891, it tells the story of three homesick Native boys who ran away from a Kiowa Indian boarding school to return to their family’s camp, and the consequences the boys and boarding school staff faced as a result. Until now, this story has been passed on through the Kiowa oral tradition. The Indolent Boys stars Edward Albert as Barton Wherritt, John Aniston as Superintendent Gregory, Michael Horse as Emdotah, Arigon Starr as Mother Goodeye, Zahn McClarnon as John Pai, and Tamara Krinsky as Carrie. It was co-directed by Lori Tubert and Michael Horse, with a special introduction by novelist and playwright N. Scott Momaday.

9 p.m. Other Voices, Other Sounds. Early European Electroacoustic Music. Early electroacoustic music by a number of the European pioneers in the field, including Gottfried Michael Koenig, Iannis Xenakis, Karlheinz Stockhausen, Luc Ferrari, Henri Pousseur, Luciano Berio, Bruno Maderna, and others. Featured will be a number of pieces from the Acousmatrix series box set “The History of Electronic Music” on the BVHAASST label from the Netherlands, as well as other releases. Hosted by Steven M. Miller.

Friday, October 27

8 a.m. Peace Talks. A conversation with Mairead Corrigan Maguire. Mairead Maguire founded the Community of the Peace People in 1976 along with Betty Williams and Ciaran

Mairead Maguire

McKeown. Mairead was the aunt of the three Maguire children who were hit by a getaway car after its driver was shot by a soldier. The deaths prompted a series of marches throughout Northern Ireland and further a field, all demanding an end to the violence. Mairead and Betty went on to win the Nobel Peace Prize in 1976. Hosted by Carol Boss. Peace Talks is an on-going series of programs spotlighting peacemaking and non-violent conflict resolution. All programs in the series can be heard online via www.peacetalk-radio.com. Learn how you can support this independent production by visiting www.goodradioshows.org.

Neale Donald Walsch

Saturday, October 28

6 a.m. New Dimensions, "Conversations With God, With Life, With Ourselves" with Neale Donald Walsch. Walsch brings us face to face with ourselves, and with our own enlightenment. Program #3150.

Sunday, October 29

11 a.m. American Radio Works, "Japan's Pop Power." For decades, the United States has been the dominant exporter of pop culture. In the 21st century, it has a powerful new competitor: Japan. Young people across the globe watch anime, read manga comic books from right to left, listen to J-pop, and play with Japanese toys and video games. What's so cool about Japan? Will the ancient nation rise again, this time as the world's leading exporter of fantasy? An entertaining journey, from Tokyo to middle America.

6 p.m. Radio Theatre, "In Salt." Another in the LA Theaterworks' WorldPlay series (see October 1st listing), this radio drama comes to us from Radio New Zealand and was conceived and written collaboratively by the members of the cast and production team. It is a Gothic drama resonating of cultural cross-pollination in colonial New Zealand. A prominent English naturalist has bought an isolated block of land deep in the heart of the colony and he sails with his family to document this strange new country. He dies at sea, and Sarah and Gabriel Plowright, his daughter and son-in-law, push forward to clear and settle his land and bury his body. As they continue his work, the lens of their camera becomes both the reporter and distorter of history, as the two cultures, having once encountered one another, will never be the same.

9 p.m. Other Voices, Other Sounds. High Mayhem Highlights, Part 2. More excerpts from the 6th Annual High Mayhem festival, held October 6-8 in Santa Fe. Hosted by CK Barlow. ■

EXPERIENCE JAZZ IN NEW MEXICO
LAND OF ENCHANTMENT

JAZZ OF ENCHANTMENT

Extended Profiles to Air on All That Jazz

The Jazz of Enchantment radio series, which has been spotlighting just some of the top jazz players with ties to New Mexico, will wrap up its run of Morning Edition features with drummer Pete Amahl on October 2nd and pianist Bert Dalton on October 9th. Both short features will air at 7:51 a.m. on those two Mondays.

Also on October 2nd, extended profiles of each musician will begin airing weekdays, right after NPR News at Noon, during All That Jazz.

“Each feature on the jazz show will run about 20 minutes and will include more stories and more music from each artist,” says series producer Paul Ingles. “We figured the jazz fans would really want to hear more than we could deliver during the morning features, so we created these longer pieces with that in mind.”

Both the short features, longer features, and original full-length interviews with each artist are archived at the website www.newmexicojazz.org, along with photographs and artist biographies.

Mark Weaver

An exhibit of some of photographer Genevieve Russell’s images for the series is on display this month at the Outpost Performance Space’s Inpost Artspace. A series-ending benefit event at the Outpost will take place Friday, October 27th at 8 p.m. featuring an open jazz jam and a multi-media presentation of photos and audio from the series.

The series was supported by the City of Albuquerque’s Urban Enhancement Trust Fund, the New Mexico Humanities Council, KUNM and Good Radio Shows, Inc.
